IN THE SUPREME COURT
THE STATE OF NEVADA

In the matter of
R. W. Patterson for a writ of Corpus.
W. B. Moore, Atty. for Plaintiff.
E. P. Moran, Atty. for Defendant.
Petitioner was imprisoned in the jail of Washoe County under a warrant of commitment made by the justice of the peace of Sparks Township in said county. The commitment was in the following form:
"State of Nevada,
Plaintiff,
vs.
R. W. Patterson,
Defendant."

A complaint under oath having been filed in this court on the 30th day of April, 1906, charging said defendant, R. W. Patterson, of a certain public offense, to wit:

A misdemeanor, committed on the 26th day of April, 1906, and a warrant of arrest having been duly issued on the said 30th day of April, 1906, for the arrest of said defendant; and said defendant having been duly arrested and thereafter on the second day of May, 1906, tried before the Court with a jury so found guilty as charged in the complaint, and all and singular the law and the premises by the court here understood and fully considered, and no sufficient cause appearing why judgment should not be pronounced against said defendant.

WHEREFORE, it is ordered and adjudged by the Court that for said offence, you, the said R. W. Patterson, be fined the sum of Five Hundred Dollars, and imprisoned in the County Jail of said County of Washoe, for the term of One Hundred and Eighty days in addition to said fine, from date hereof.

Dated in open Court, the 3d day of May, 1906.
(Signed) James Pollock,
Justice of the Peace.

Petitioner had with credits, etc., served the full term of the One Hundred and Eighty days stated in the commitment; but had not paid the fine of Five Hundred Dollars therein stated.

Two questions were argued by counsel in the case:

1. Does the warrant of commitment above stated impose upon the petitioner a fine of five hundred dollars; and also give him the privilege of paying the said fine at the rate of one day for each two dollars thereof; and

2. Does the statute warrant the Justice in imposing such sentence, to wit, absolute imprisonment for the full term of one hundred and eighty days; and in addition thereto imprisonment for two hundred and fifty days, conditioned upon his failure to pay the fine of five hundred dollars.

Under the view that we take of the case the second question need not be determined.

The sentence in the warrant of commitment is plainly:

(1) An absolute fine for five hundred dollars, without order of commitment to prison until said fine be paid at rate of two dollars, etc.; and
(2) An absolute imprisonment for one hundred and eighty days.

There being no alternative in the first part of the sentence of discharging the fine of five hundred dollars by serving one day's imprisonment for each two dollars thereof, such part of the sentence having, as above seen, been obliterated, such fine is absolute and the petitioner could not be imprisoned at all under said first part; and the petitioner having with credits, etc., served the full term of one hundred and eighty days imposed upon him under the second part of said sentence, he was, of course, entitled to his discharge.

It appearing that the Respondent herein, C. P. Ferrell, Sheriff of Washoe County, has no legal warrant for longer holding the petitioner in custody.

It is therefore ordered that the Petitioner be forthwith discharged from custody by the Respondent herein.

We concur: FITZGERALD, C. J.
TALBOT, J.
NORCROSS, J.

HELP—WANTED!!!!

Most of us have our troubles. Sometimes our clothes hurt us, either physically or mentally, and goodness knows that's trouble enough.

If you're in need of help to get over your troubles, come to the place where you can get the best of everything at the lowest prices. We have a large stock of clothing, and we will make you a suit for you—or a pair of overalls—for less money than you can get it made anywhere else, and to satisfy you better, too.

We can show you the finest lot of patterns in Fall and Winter clothes ever brought to town. Royal Tailoring is the best dress position we have anything about. We are here to please our trade, and if we know where we could get anything better than Royal Tailoring and still keep within a reasonable price limit, we would do it—but we simply don't know where nor how. To any man who isn't wearing Royal Tailoring wear it, come and put us to the test. We will agree to make your full suit for you—or your overcoat—for less money than you can get it made anywhere else, and to satisfy you better, too.

Ring up Main 496 and CHAUNCEY LATTI will call on you the same day. He can fill Christmas orders up to Saturday night.
